Clients often inform us that the deceased's wishes were for a simple funeral. Most services offered by funeral directors often include many items not necessarily always required, wanted or used.

We have therefore designed this all-inclusive funeral that will provide a very dignified service without the unnecessary items and services with no hidden extras.

Keeping it simple helps to minimise the cost to us; this, therefore allows us to provide a first-class simple cremation funeral service at a very economic cost to you.

It is appreciated that that some clients want or need more from a funeral service, we can also look after these needs by providing all types of funeral service with freedom of choice, good unbiased advice and at an economical cost. We are here to help.
